
Este projeto internacional é coordenado por uma equipe franco-brasileira de pesquisadores da área de humanidades, ciências sociais, arte e literatura. Seu objetivo é produzir uma plataforma digital, com textos em quatro línguas, iluminando dinâmicas de circulação cultural transatlânticas e refletindo sobre seu papel no processo de globalização contemporâneo. Por meio de um conjunto de ensaios dedicados às relações culturais entre a Europa, a África e as Américas, o projeto desenvolve uma história conectada do espaço atlântico a partir do século XVIII.

Modernist Photography in Mexico: Networks of Migration

- ☐ Europa - América do Norte
- ☐ A consolidação das culturas de massa

As active participants in the Mexican cultural renaissance, Edward Weston, Tina Modotti and Manuel Álvarez Bravo engaged in a global discourse of modernism through transatlantic connections. Networks of migration in, out, and around these three artists show that Mexico City was a modernist center rivaling Paris and New York in the interwar period.

This video was presented at the Silver Atlantic conference at the Jeu de Paume (Paris) on October 2, 2021, in the context of the “Masterworks of Modern Photography, 1900-1940” exhibition on view at the time. This explains why the presentation focuses primarily on photographs from the Thomas Walther Collection. The conference was organized as part of the Transatlantic Cultures project. Images are used for research and scholarship under the fair use doctrine.
